William Hammond, area civic leader, has been named chairman of the Lomita Committee to Re-elect Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

Hammond will serve with three other Lomita officials: Joe Haslam, former mayor; William Phillips; and Mead Gardiner.

"Supervisor Chace has served the people of Lomita and of Los Angeles County well," Hammond said. "I urge my fellow Lomita voters to return him to office on June 4."

Hammond cited Chace's cooperative attitude and willingness to work with Lomita officials on local problems.

"He has made certain that our local highway needs were taken care of and has been successful in bringing full county services to residents of this area," Hammond said. Chace also carries the support of Mayor James Cole of Lomita, who endorsed the Fourth District representative last month.
